

DAVID NANTON, C.A.

Practice Leader, Strategic Consulting Partnership

Office: 604-224-1374 Cell: 778-231-1354

E-mail: davidnanton@shaw.ca

About David:

David focuses on providing business management advice and CFO consulting services to organisations operating primarily in the not-for-profit area. Prior to starting his business, David held Chief Financial Officer / Director of Finance roles in the non-profit and private sectors.

David specializes in financial information development, reporting and analyses; business sustainability assessments; project feasibility studies; cost restraint / restructuring initiatives; policy assessment and development, fundraising and human resource issues.

He taught management at BCIT. A practising karate black belt, David is married with two daughters.

Current and Recent Projects:

- Provides on-call Chief Financial Officer / Business Manager services for organizations needing experienced financial and management expertise and focus; is a contributor to the senior management team.
- Provides a complete review of a finance department including staffing expertise and numbers, technology and systems, policies and risk management.
- Assesses and implements changes in financial statement and budgeting formatting and processes to ensure transparency, understanding and appropriateness for different levels of user of financial information.

Education, Training and Experience:

- Received a BA from Queens University in economics and psychology and B Com equivalency from SFU.
- Qualified as a Chartered Accountant with marks in the top quartile.
- Worked in the manufacturing and retail sector, then made a conscious decision to move to the charitable sector in order to contribute to community.
- As a staff member, consultant and volunteer has worked on assignment with over 30 charitable and social service organizations.
- Peer recognition has resulted in recruitment as a volunteer board member of Bard on the Beach, Big Brothers of Greater Vancouver and the Association of Fundraising Professionals.